Cure For Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only 50cts at W. C. Gaston's drug store.

Ram's Horns.

Faith grows by putting God's word to the test.

Only the fool will expect to prosper when God is against him.

Some people never find out that there is nothing made by worry.

Some preachers never find out that God employs no hired help.

The moment a sinner comes to himself he wants to come to Christ.

The man who lives only for himself is attending to the devil's business.

It takes a moderate drinker a long time to find out that he has any bad habits.

When you pray, believe that you will either receive what you ask or what you should ask.

No one can belong to God for an hour who doesn't intend to belong to him forever.

Jesus taught economy and prudence, when he told his disciples to gather up the fragments.

The only people who succeed in living a Christian life are those who devote their whole time to it.

The church is a help to the Christian, but it cannot do anything for the sinner who will not repent.

Prayer has no favor with God unless it is prompted by a heart that either loves his Son or wants to.

Making the Bible a center-table ornament is an altogether different thing from making it a lamp of life.

Plucking the feathers from an eagle's wings may keep his body on the ground, but his heart will still fly toward the sun.

The world is full of people who believe the Bible with their heads, who take no step toward Christ with their hearts.

The man whose wife doesn't know that he is a Christian, had better keep his seat when a rising vote is taken at church.

My little boy, when two years of age, was taken very ill with bloody flux. I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and luckily procured part of a bottle. I carefully read the directions and gave it accordingly. He was very low, but slowly and surely he began to improve, gradually recovered, and is now as stout and strong as ever. I feel sure it saved his life. I never can praise the Remedy half its worth. I am sorry every one in the world does not know how good it is as I do.—Mrs. Lina S. Hinton, Grahamsville, Marion Co., Florida. For sale by W. C. Gaston.

No verdict was ever received with more universal satisfaction in Sullivan, Linn and Carroll counties than the Taylor verdict.—Milan Standard.

King Corn.

Corn is our great staple. It is a distinctively, almost exclusively, American product, and in value our corn crop is worth more than any other crop we raise.

This is apparently the greatest corn year ever known, and the season is now so far advanced as to reduce chances of disaster to a minimum.

In 1891 we raised the greatest corn crop ever grown, but we are going to render it insignificant this
